

Crisis Center for South Suburbia

Who We Are

The Crisis Center for South Suburbia (CCSS) is a non-profit community organization that provides emergency shelter and other essential services for individuals and families victimized by domestic violence and addresses the societal issues that contribute to domestic violence.

CCSS provides a safe haven for women and children. For 37 years, CCSS has helped more than 57,000 women and children navigate the cycle of abuse in their lives.

Crisis Center for South Suburbia Auxiliary

The CCSS Auxiliary is a fundraising arm of the Crisis Center for South Suburbia. Since 2008, the CCSS Auxiliary has raised more than $50,000 through their events benefitting individuals and families victimized by domestic violence.

Success in life has nothing to do with what you gain in life or accomplish for yourself.

It's what you do for others. -- Danny Thomas

The Crisis Center for South Suburbia Auxiliary is committed to:

Promoting awareness of the Crisis Center for South Suburbia throughout the south and southwest suburbs by increasing its volunteer base, increasing revenue through fundraising activities, and providing opportunities to share their common interests and commitment to helping victims of domestic violence.

"I am only me; but still I am one. I cannot do everything, but still I can do something, I will not refuse to do something I can do."

-Helen Keller

CCSS Auxiliary
Fundraising Projects
